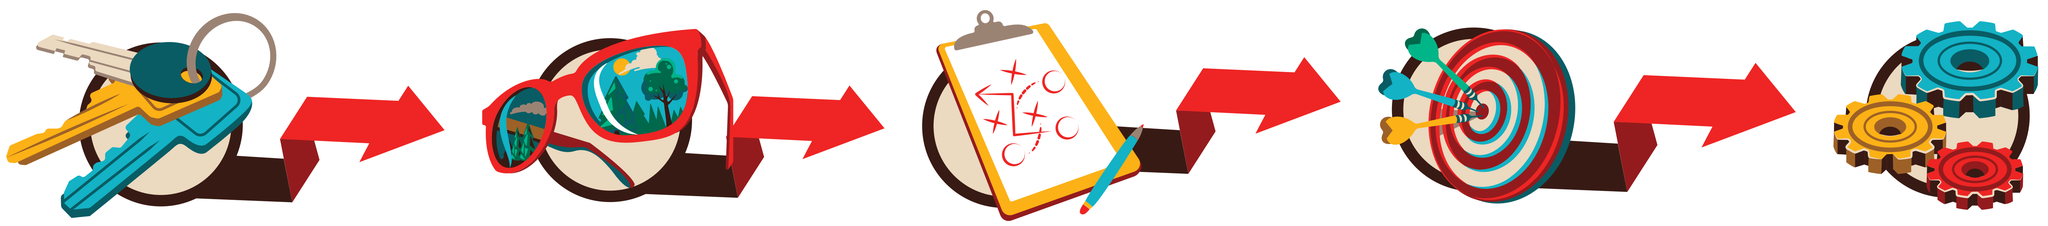
Making Life Better: Parks, Recreation and Culture Plan

We're developing a long-range plan to shape the future of Parks, Recreation and Culture for the next 25 years. It will guide key decisions on delivering core services and planning new facilities and infrastructure.

Share your voice by taking our survey

Complete the survey for a chance to win one of five exciting prizes!

Project timeline



Phase one:
Key findings
(Winter-Spring 2025)

Phase two:
Visioning
(Summer-Fall 2025)

Phase three:
Drafting
(Fall-Winter 2025)

Phase four:
Confirming
(Winter-Spring 2026)

Phase five:
Implementation
(Summer 2026)

Burnaby.ca/PRCplan

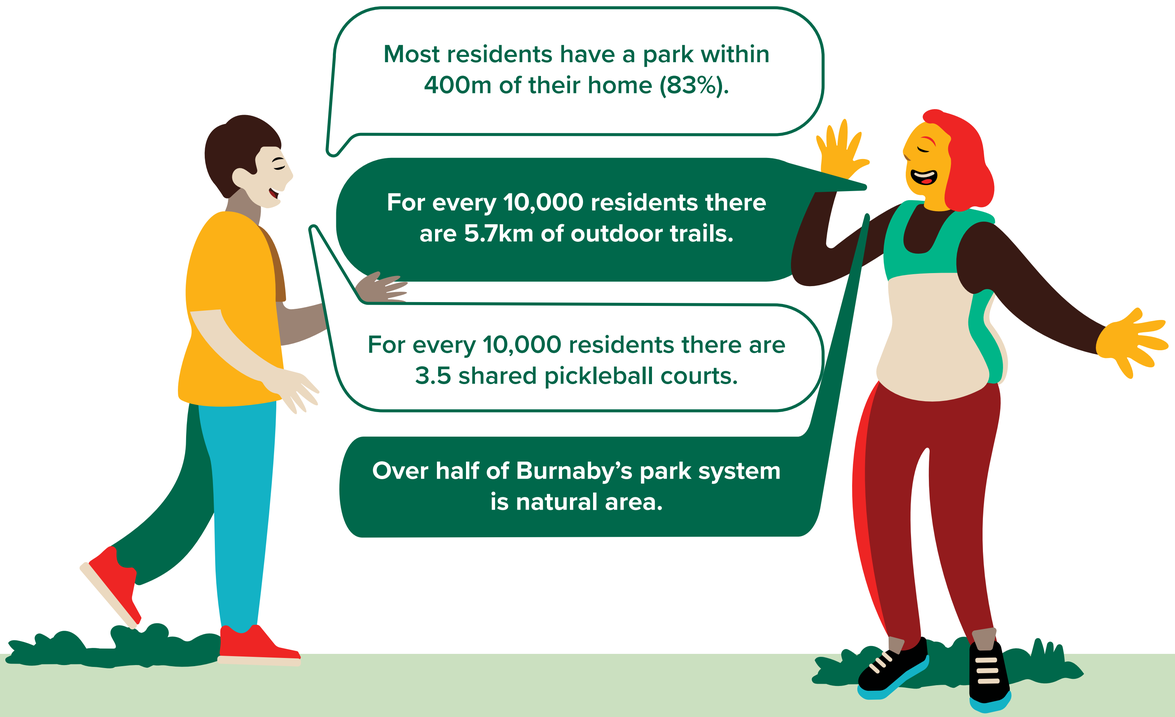
City of Burnaby

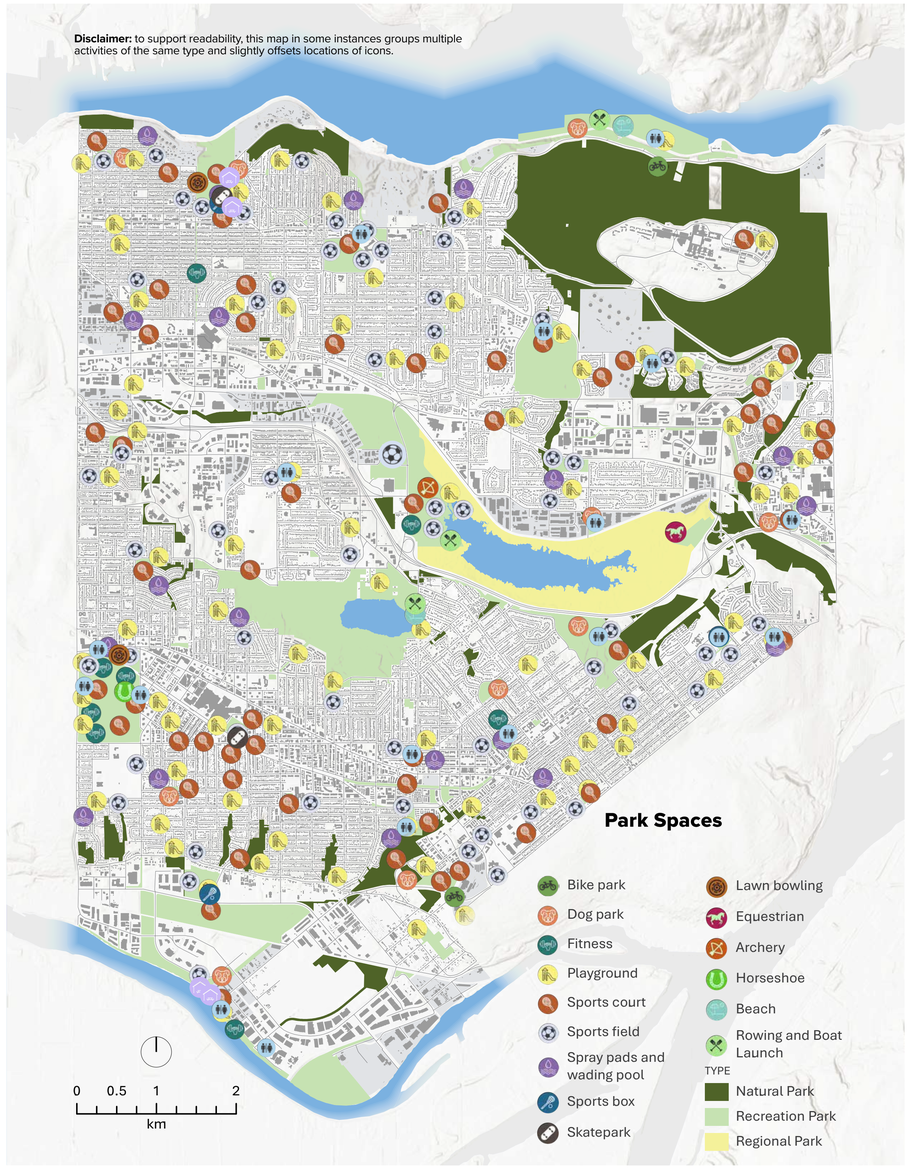
Making Life Better: Parks, Recreation and Culture Plan

Parks in Burnaby

Burnaby's parks are central to its identity and play a key role in enhancing livability, sustainability and quality of life for residents. Burnaby's parks are designed to support a range of recreational activities. They feature outdoor amenities such as playgrounds, trails, sport courts and fields, catering to residents of all ages and interests.

Did you know?





Burnaby.ca/PRCplan

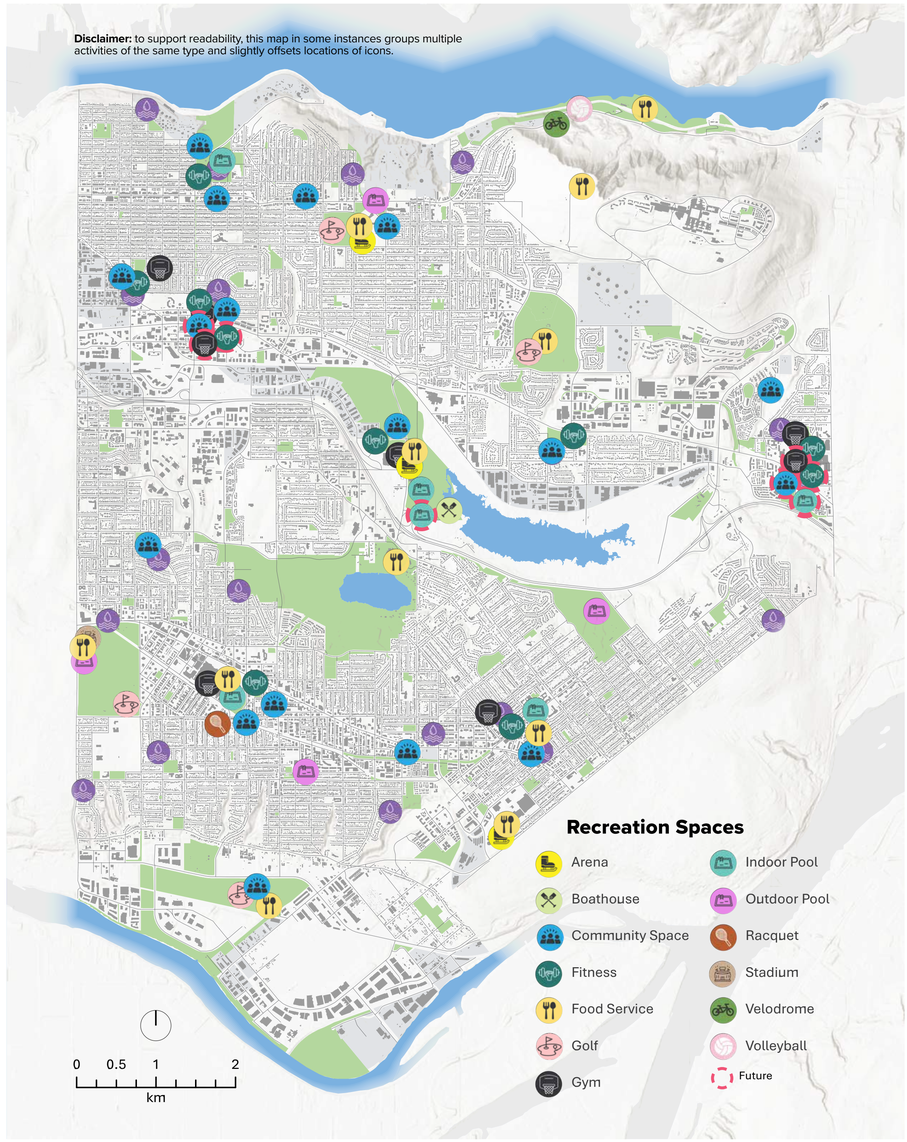
City of Burnaby

Making Life Better: Parks, Recreation and Culture Plan

Recreation in Burnaby

Burnaby's recreation services support community well-being by offering year-round aquatics programs, ice arena facilities, versatile community centres, and golf and food services, alongside a variety of activity spaces like gymnasiums and fitness studios.

Did you know?



Burnaby.ca/PRCplan

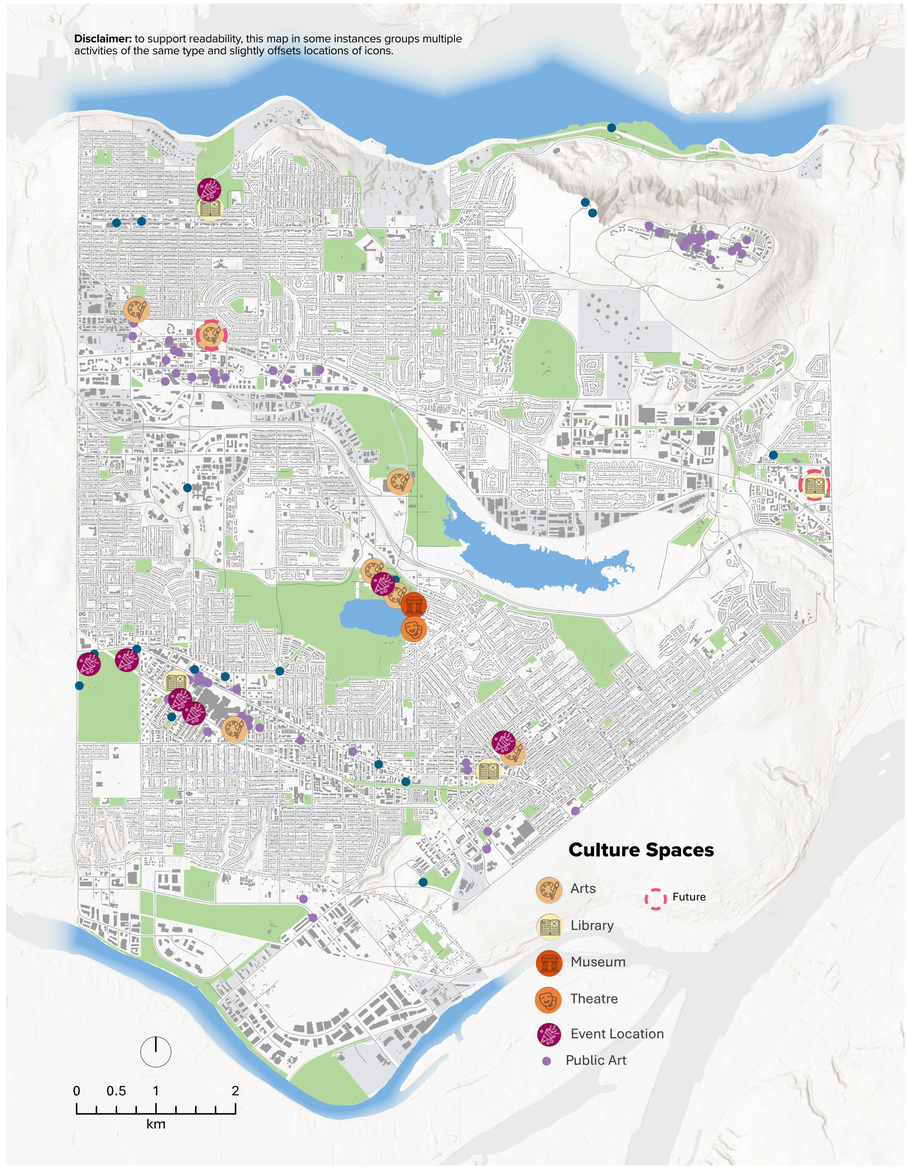
City of Burnaby

Making Life Better: Parks, Recreation and Culture Plan

Culture in Burnaby

Burnaby's cultural services enrich the community through exhibits, performances and a variety of courses, offering vibrant events and programs that help visitors learn, create, connect and celebrate culture at venues like Burnaby Village Museum and the Shadbolt Centre for the Arts.

Did you know?



Burnaby.ca/PRCplan

City of Burnaby

Making Life Better: Parks, Recreation and Culture Plan

What do you love and value most about Burnaby's parks, recreation and culture services?

How could Burnaby's existing parks and facilities be improved? Is anything missing?

Making Life Better: Parks, Recreation and Culture Plan

Tell us what matters most to you!

How it works:

1. Take 3 marbles from the basket.
2. Review the jars – each one represents a different Parks, Recreation, or Cultural service the City could invest in.
3. Distribute your marbles based on your priorities.
   - You can put all 3 marbles in one jar,
   - or spread them out across 2 or 3 jars – it's up to you!
4. Drop your marbles in the jar(s) that reflect your top priorities.

Share your voice by taking our survey

Complete the survey for a chance to win one of five exciting prizes!

Making Life Better: Parks, Recreation and Culture Plan

Which parks, recreation or culture facilities do you visit the most?

Place a marker on the map to show us where you go most often.

Burnaby.ca/PRCplan

City of Burnaby